SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. In addition to submitting to drug testing in accordance with the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, the defendant shall participate in either or both inpatient or outpatient treatment programs approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse treatment, which program shall include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program.
2. The defendant shall notify, and allow his supervision officer to notify, any current employer as well as any potential future employer and/or future employer or volunteer organizations regarding his conviction in the instant offense. The defendant shall not have sole control of any finances for any business or organization by whom he is employed or for whom he volunteers.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant as directed by the probation officer.
4. The defendant shall submit to a warrantless search of his person, residence, vehicle, personal effects, place of employment, and other property by a federal probation or pretrial services officer or other law enforcement officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
5. The defendant shall participate in and fully comply with a mental health evaluation and either or both inpatient or outpatient mental health treatment program, if recommended, as approved by the United States Probation Office. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any evaluation or treatment program.
6. The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks, and shall not incur any new debts or apply for credit without the prior approval of the probation officer.
7. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other weapon.
